REGULAR BUSINESS

- A. President: Welcome, introduced new members Mark (p), Chris (np). Don't forget to brew your beer with your holiday ingredient from the Christmas party for the Club contest at the April meeting.
- B. Vice President: Passed out new survey took 10 mins for everyone to fill out & return. Will be summarized and reported on at the March meeting.

NEW BUSINESS

- A. Pete: St. Patrick's Day Parade in Bay City. Received entry registration info. $50 entry fee due by 3/6. Pete has a flatbed trailer to decorate, Brian volunteered to tow.
Motion to have a float in the Parade Sun, March 15. Brian 2nd Vote Yes
Motion for entry fee of $50 +$50 decorations Brian 2nd Vote Yes
- B. Pete: Mug making night at Painterly Pottery. Cost varies approx. $20 per person if we get 8 people you get a 25% discount. We can bring in homebrew & snacks. Suggested as a Sunday meetup. Look for an announcement on Facebook/email.
- C. Johnny: Contest Calendar. Announced info for BJCP contest at Four Leaf Brewing in Clare. Deadline is 2/23 Working on a Calendar to be shared on Website/Facebook for Contests
- D. Josh: passing on questions from Paul. Paul was wondering if we were thinking about doing Oktobrewfest again or any other like event. Wort would not have to be Helles, could do something else. He enjoyed that and wants to do something again when he could be there. Also, there is the possibility of getting a barrel from TriCity once they empty one.

OLD BUSINESS

- A. Larry: Barrel #1 aged beer should be tasted to see how it's doing. Check with Ron to see if Vanilla Beans/coco nibs have been added. Time to figure out what is going in Barrel #1 next. Suggestions were: Wee Heavy, Belgian Dark/Strong or an English Old Ale. A Poll will be posted on Facebook to gauge interest.

TASTING New format for sharing of samples was tried. Took a 10 minute break for fellowship and brewers poured their brews for sampling, Everyone had a flight of brews to try while each brewer explained their brew. Voting took place for the Brew of the Night. Took approx. 45 minutes to taste 10 beverages. Randy and Paul tied for BotN both received 100pts towards BOTY and all entries received 25 points (max of 50 per brewer)
